Welcome to the 6th Annual Cannabis World Congress & Business Expo!

It is with great pleasure that I welcome our attendees, exhibitors, and sponsors to the 6th Annual Cannabis World Congress & Business Exposition (CWCBEpo) in New York!

We often hear from established cannabis and hemp business owners that CWCBEpo was their first industry event. They cite CWCBEpo as a successful forum for them where they met investors and connected with companies and service providers that helped catapult their idea or existing business to a level of growth they never imagined possible. Many large and high-end business deals and acquisitions were triggered by connections made at our events. In this rapidly emerging East Coast market, our New York event will no doubt continue to provide that kind of opportunity. Our conference program, exhibit floor, and networking events offer the right tools and resources needed for success. We take pride in supporting business growth as well as supporting the industry's advocacy efforts.

We are excited for this edition of CWCBEpo as progressive legislation rolls across the United States, and the East Coast is especially seeing a boom of opportunity in the cannabis and hemp markets. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Connecticut have made great progress in expansion of their medical cannabis laws and are working toward possible Adult Use legislation. The Farm Bill passage is also adding another layer of opportunity for our region.

Market relevancy is highlighted in this year's conference tracks which include: Investing, Policy/Compliance/Legal, Business Opportunities, Adult Use in the Northeast, Marketing/Branding/Commerce, Hemp, STEMed, Banking and Finance, Medical and Cannabis/Community/Society.

We are excited to be offering some fresh content that continues to underscore CWCBEpo's commitment to providing the best education in the business with thought leadership panels and sessions on:

- Cannabis 2030: Back to the Future
- Banking Bad – Obtaining & Keeping a Bank Account
- Being a Good Boss: Why it Matters More in Cannabis
- Compliance Issues for Cannabis Licensees - How to Remove All Fear of Regulators
- A Brand New Cannabis World
- Warrior Wellness: The Transition Epidemic Facing Veterans
- Breaking Boundaries Without Permission: Women Making Business and Social Impact;
- Autism: Perspectives, Passion & Progress
- Cannabis & Hemp Academia Town Hall
- CBD: Past, Present & Future and much, much more

As you get ready to attend CWCBEpo and our Cannabis Week activities, I know you will have a productive and meaningful exposure to the cannabis and hemp industries as well as come away with a multitude of positive business-impacting experiences. Enjoy the show!

Best regards,

Gregory P. Marco

President,

Thank You to the Cannabis World Congress & Business Exposition Advisory Committee Members

Last year I had the pleasure of assembling the Cannabis World Congress & Business Exposition (CWCBEexpo) Advisory Committee. It is with gratitude and respect that I thank each and every one of them for their service, professionalism, dedication, expertise and especially their friendship. As advisors, they provide us with innovative ideas and recommend strategies that help CWCBEexpo navigate through the rapidly growing and evolving cannabis industry.

Each of these Members has experience across several different business sectors. They are serial entrepreneurs, start-up masters, industry advocates, and have been part of high-end marketing campaigns and event planning over the years. We are grateful and fortunate to have this group of world-class professionals be part of our team.

They bring their passion, wisdom, and vision to CWCBEexpo as well as to the industry. They are truly among the brave, the committed and the courageous!

With sincere thanks,

Thursday Keynote: Steve White

Cannabis Investing Today and Tomorrow: Cutting Through the Chatter and Focusing on Basic Financials/Growth Strategies

Steve White: CEO, Harvest Health & Recreation, Inc.

Thursday, 10:30 a.m. – 10:50 a.m. • Room 1A13

Harvest Health and Recreation, Inc. (CSE: HARV, OTCQX: HRVSF) is a vertically-integrated cannabis company with one of the largest and deepest footprints in the U.S., that expects to have the rights to operate in more cannabis facilities and more licenses than any other company in the U.S. Before launching Harvest in 2011, Steve graduated summa cum laude from Arizona State's Honors College in 1995 and then from the Washington & Lee University School of Law in 1999. After working for two national law firms, he founded his own boutique firm in 2005. After opening Harvest's first dispensary in 2013, Steve worked there for several months fulfilling orders, performing reception duties and consulting with patients.

Steve founded and now serves on the board of directors for Harvesting Hope, a non-profit organization that supports young children suffering from seizure disorders.

Steve serves as the President of the Arizona Dispensary Association and is a founding board member of the Policy Center for Public Health and Safety. In addition, he has done hundreds of interviews, speaking engagements and provided expert testimony on a multitude of marijuana-related topics.

In Conversation with Bruce Linton:

A High-Level View of the Current State of the Industry

Bruce Linton: Chairman and CEO, Canopy Growth Corporation and Co-Founder, Tweed Marijuana Inc.

Friday, 12:00 p.m. – 12:45 p.m. • Room 1A13

Canopy Growth was the first cannabis producing company in North America to be listed on a major stock exchange (TSX, July 2016) and included on a major stock index (S&P/TSX Composite Index, March 2017). In May 2018 Canopy was also the first cannabis-producing company to list on another major stock exchange, the New York Stock Exchange. Bruce's experience as a founder, CEO, and Board member across a wide variety of enterprises has influenced the positive start of Canopy Growth, which to date has enjoyed market support for capital raises of over $6 billion including a $5 billion investment by Fortune 500 beverage company, Constellation Brands (NYSE:STZ).

Bruce's focus has been driving the Company's overall strategy including its Canadian and international expansion efforts as well as laying the groundwork for the Company's future move into cannabis-based consumer products including cannabis-based medicines, with the founding of subsidiary Canopy Health Innovations, and into cannabis-based beverages, through a strategic partnership with Constellation Brands. After beginning his career at Newbridge Networks Corporation, he has since held positions that include General Manager and Re-Founder of Computerland.ca, President and Co-Founder of webHancer Corp, and part of the establishing team at CrossKeys Systems Corporation. He was also part of the leadership team for the NASDAQ/TSX initial public offering at CrossKeys. He is the past Chairman of the Ottawa Community Loan Foundation past Board Member and Treasurer of Canada World Youth, past Board of Governor for Carleton University, past President of the Nepean Skating Club, and past President of the Carleton University Students Association.

Industry Update

Vivien Azer

Managing Director, Consumer - Beverage, Cannabis & Tobacco, Cowen Inc.
Thursday, 10:10 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. • Room 1A13

The legalized cannabis and hemp industries are rapidly emerging markets which could approach $17 billion in 2019. Each represents economic opportunities for investors, entrepreneurs and business owners inside and outside these spaces. Vivien Azer from Cowen will present an Industry Update on cannabis and hemp domestically and globally. Ms. Azer will highlight trends in the areas of consumption, commercialization, industry, and investment, as well as capital raise and spend. Come hear what's really happening and the opportunities opening up in the hottest industry since the "dot com era."

Cannabis 2030: Back To The Future

Thursday, 10:50 a.m. – 11:10 a.m. • Room 1A13

How will the world look with cannabis available and accessible to all adults? Will we dine at restaurants with cannabis flights, watch movies at theaters with THC sound and get massages at spas that use CBD oil? The unfolding global return of cannabis after 80+ years in exile brings with it an undeniable impact on life as we know it.

The world has never changed this quickly before and will never change this slowly again. The business, social, civil, medical, industrial, environmental and personal impact of the cannabis plant reminds us that we are part of a crucial movement at a critical moment. The spread of socially acceptable cannabis consumption will undoubtedly exert a kaleidoscope of influence on our decision-making, idea generation and business formation as pubs and coffee shops did in their respective eras. The collision of technology, globalization and the emerging wellness trend is having a profound impact on our employer relationships, politics, values and community. Accelerating global interdependence and contact with strangers requires us to build longer bridges of understanding across deeper chasms just as technology helps us emerge from the shackles of traditional employment.

Prepare to be transported into life in 2030 with two of the most experienced and creative executives in cannabis today.

How to Purchase or Open a Cannabis Business

9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. - Room: 1A03

Moderated by: Chloe Villano, President, Clover Leaf University

Panelists: Adam Dunn, Professor, Clover Leaf University; Jaime Lewis, Co-Founder & Managing Partner of Coldwater Consulting; Founder & CEO, Mountain Medicine

Are you looking to enter the cannabis industry and are unsure what road is the best one to take? Then this class is for you! Quickly identify the national business opportunities, legislative parameters, associated risks, business models, regulations, due diligence and steps necessary to purchase, invest or open a cannabis business.

Module one will cover business opportunities, company structure, product development, and creating award-winning companies and brands. Module two will discuss the best way to enter the industry. Is it best for an entrepreneur to partner with an existing licensee who is already profitable by investing directly in the business? Is it better to purchase the business, or compete for a license? This class will discuss the risks, the financials, the benefits, and the rewards, for each of these business opportunities. Learn the critical due diligence necessary to vet these companies properly, and what a successful business should encompass to be a strong candidate for purchase or investment. Module three will cover the merger and acquisition process for cannabis businesses including values, timelines, and the transfer of ownership process.

Cannabis 2030: Back To The Future

10:50 a.m. – 11:10 a.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: Sumit Mehta, CEO, MAZAKALI; Rafael de la Cruz, Principal, Universal Brand Ventures

How will the world look with cannabis available and accessible to all adults? Will we dine at restaurants with cannabis flights, watch movies at theaters with THC sound and get massages at spas that use CBD oil? The unfolding global return of cannabis after 80+ years in exile brings with it an undeniable impact on life as we know it. The world has never changed this quickly before and will never change this slowly again. The business, social, civil, medical, industrial, environmental and personal impact of the cannabis plant reminds us that we are part of a crucial movement at a critical moment. The spread of socially acceptable cannabis consumption will undoubtedly exert a kaleidoscope of influence on our decision-making, idea generation and business formation as pubs and coffee shops did in their respective eras. The collision of technology, globalization and the emerging wellness trend is having a profound impact on our employer relationships, politics, values and community. Accelerating global interdependence and contact with strangers requires us to build longer bridges of understanding across deeper chasms just as technology helps us emerge from the shackles of traditional employment. Prepare to be transported into life in 2030 with two of the most experienced and creative executives in cannabis today.

Big Data Powers Big Cannabis

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A15

Presented by: David Berg, President and CTO, Strainprint Technologies Ltd; Christopher Dell'Olio, CEO, WebJoint

The cannabis market is evolving quickly. As new markets open and unique products come to market, the importance of understanding consumer usage trends has never been more relevant. While we have a good handle on how much is being bought and where, we know very little about the way Cannabis affects the human condition. There are platforms gathering data to study consumer use with the goal of understanding decision making processes. Learn about how big data enables consumers to make better purchase decisions while uncovering new opportunities for commerce, formulations, and medical R&D initiatives. Learn how big data is driving the cannabis industry to the next level.

Don't Forget the Checks! How to Prep for Turning in Your Licensing Application

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: Greg Huffaker, III, Director of Client Services, Canna Advisors; Victoria Trusty, Senior Account Manager, Canna Advisors; Tenisha Victor, Project Manager, iAnthus Capital Holding

When it comes to submitting a cannabis business licensing application, you SHOULD sweat the small stuff, but you wouldn't believe some of the important details that we've seen people miss. There are a million and one things to think about during the application process, but there are simple things that get overlooked in the final preparation that could end up disqualifying your application. In this entertaining session, industry veterans take you through practical preparation advice and stories of real-life disqualifications – like actually forgetting to take the required form of payment – to reveal insider tips and lessons on what not to overlook in the process.

How to Protect your Cannabis Business

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Geoff Pope, MBA, Vice President, Aon Risk Solutions; Norman Chevlin, CFP®, Plant Your Financial Seed, LLC

Learn how cannabis businesses owners and investors need the right insurance protections and investments. With proper planning, realistic goals and knowledge of how to protect your investment, you will be able to sleep better at night.

Protect Thyself: Investor- vs. Company-Friendly Deal Terms

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Andi Goldman, Principal, ABG Advisory / Equitas Partners Fund; Kathryn McCall, Partner, Sideman & Bancroft LLP

In this entertaining, dynamic, back and forth, “point-counterpoint” style panel/debate by two very experienced professionals, we will reveal various important deal terms and varying types of investments with the advantages and disadvantages debated from the company/entrepreneur vs. investor perspective. Discussion points will include: SAFEs and KISSes, convertible notes, equity financings and terms present in all types of financings.

280E: Taxing the Cannabis Industry

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Moderated by: Dean Guske, Principal, Guske & Company, Inc

Panelists: Marc Claybon, Senior Tax Manager, Crowe LLP; Nick Richards, Attorney, Dill Dill Carr Stonbraker & Hutchings, PC; Sandy Suchoff, CPA, The CannaCPAs

This session will focus on strategies to minimize the impact of 280E. We will discuss the importance of entity selection and how those choices are applied across the industry. We'll also discuss current positions of the IRS on businesses in the cannabis industry.

Being a Good Boss: Why it Matters More in Cannabis

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A15

Moderated by: Diane Czarkowski, Founding Partner, Canna Advisors

Panelists: Hillary Peckham, Chief Operations Officer, Etain; John Comeau, Founding Partner, H2Talent; Hope Wiseman, Founder, Mary & Main

Leaders in the cannabis industry have more of a challenge when it comes to being a good boss. From this panel presentation, attendees will learn what it takes to be a good leader and a good boss in the cannabis industry with strategic and practical tips for these critical industry realities: one disgruntled employee can equal one license-revoking penalty; there is an increased burden to be the utmost professional in every aspect of your business to educate the public, dispel stereotypes, and legitimize the industry; and you must educate the public and your employees every day.

Business and Law of Marijuana

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: William Caruso, Esq., Partner, Archer & Greiner; Patricia Heer, Editor, Cannabis Law Digest; Marc Ross, Founding Partner, Sichenzia Ross Ference LLP

This panel of experts will address the interplay between state laws legalizing recreational and/or medical marijuana uses and the Federal Controlled Substances Act; enforcement and application of other regulatory regimes governing the operation of marijuana-related businesses, such as banking and securities laws; and the ethical considerations for an attorney advising a client engaged in a marijuana-related business; as well as other timely issues.

Finding the Funding: An Overview of Debt and Equity Options to Fund your Business

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Florence Hardy, Chief Executive Officer, truCrowd; Scott Jordan, Managing Director, Vertical Company Financial Services

Are you seeking to expand your marijuana business? You need to understand the plethora of options available so you can decide the best way to move forward. This session is going to teach you how to plan, prepare and present to successfully obtain funding from non-traditional private money and equity sources for working capital, equipment and real estate, without bringing on a partner. Topics will include, but not be limited to, how to finance buildout of additional stores and grow facilities with actual examples of completed deals as well as an overview of your crowdfunding options.

Banking Bad – Obtaining and Keeping a Bank Account!

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Christian Hageseth, CEO, ONE Cannabis Group;
Michael O'Neill, *Vice President and Bank Secrecy Act Officer, Safe
Harbor Private Banking*

Join two of America's early pioneers from the Cannabis and Banking Industries as they have a candid conversation surrounding one of the most pressing prerequisites to succeed in the cannabis industry: obtaining and keeping banking services. Speculative Cannabis Banking Programs have come and gone over the years, with so few financial institutions truly offering full-service cannabis banking programs. Come learn what it takes to find a banking program which will last and what you need to do to keep these services, because having a trusted financial institution is a vital component to any successful cannabis venture.

Compliance Issues for Cannabis Licensee's – How to Remove All Fear of Regulators

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: Robert Carp, Attorney, Compliance Reliance, Inc.;
Carly Bodmer, Director of Sales and Communication, GrowFlow;
Tony Gallo, Managing Partner, Sapphire Risk Advisory Group

Compliance is costing cannabis licensed enterprises millions of dollars, and many states are taking very hard and long looks at the businesses in their regions. In this session you will learn how to understand state regulations, how to use a compliance template that will be given to all attendees, and how to conduct a compliance audit for your business or how to hire yourself out to do it for others. Additional topics will offer guidance on implementing accounting, bookkeeping and tax protocols to ensure full compliance, as well as the importance of accurate inventory management to stay compliant.

Think About Your Exit – BEFORE Your Exit

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Moderated by: Kenneth Cera, Founding Partner, Law Offices of Schwartz and Cera NY PLLC

Panelists: Louis Han, Director of Deal Flow, Arcview;
Mark Collins, *Vice President of Business Development, Cannabis
Financial News*; Alain Bankier, Managing Partner, VS Tech Ventures

It is easy to ignore thinking about your eventual exit strategy when you've got so many other pressing business decisions to make early on, but no matter the reason for an exit, your strategy should be established well before the time comes. From this panel discussion, attendees will learn strategies to develop now to drive prime valuation for a successful exit in the future. The audience will learn about real-world examples and successful business strategy applications from cannabis entrepreneurs who have navigated lucrative business exits. Industry experts will cover ways to optimize your business for the future, discuss the questions you should be asking about your business, and reveal the best exit path you can take based on your business vision.

Grow Room Environments for High-Quality Crops

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A15

Moderated by: Thomas Purdy, Marketing Manager, Desert Aire

Panelists: Craig Burg, Director of Engineering, Desert Aire, LLC; Peter Armando, CEA Technical Sales, Griffin Greenhouse Supplies; Christine Champagne, Cultivation Operations Manager, Revolutionary Clinics

Growers often feel forced to make decisions based on minimizing capital outlays and controlling cash flows while hopefully meeting the biological needs of plants. Through well-informed choices in grow room climate conditions and equipment, growers can minimize operational costs while producing larger, more profitable yields with higher levels of desirable traits. This session will feature a panel of presenters who will share real-world strategies and results based on a case study format to help attendees create a more sustainable business that is also very good for cannabis plants.

Friday, May 31

A Brand New Cannabis World

10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. - Room: 1A13

Moderated by: Leo Bridgewater, National Director of Veterans Outreach, Minorities for Medical Marijuana; and Co-Founder, Leaf Launch Holdings

Panelists: Mary Pryor, CEO & Co-Founder, Cannaclusive; Dr. Chanda Macias, Owner and CEO, National Holistic Healing Center Medical Marijuana Dispensary; Marc Ross, Director of Community Outreach, Harvest Health & Recreation; Gia Moron, Executive Vice President, Women Grow

This panel will discuss how cannabis entrepreneurs and investors discover new business opportunities through social equity partnerships, global licensing and expansion, and multinational research.

Cannabis Extraction

10:00 a.m. – 10:50 a.m. - Room: 1A15

Presented by: Matthew Anderson, CEO, Vanguard Scientific Systems

With oil-infused product sales at $1 billion in 2017, what cannabis extracts are becoming prevalent and what should today's extraction entrepreneur consider before using those investor funds? Matt Anderson explores new extraction methods, products, vertical integration models and more.

Cannabis Funds and Venture Capital, What You Need to Know

10:00 a.m. – 10:50 a.m. - Room: 1A03

Presented by: Neil Kaufman, Esq., Managing Member, Kaufman & Associates, LLC; Jeffrey Schultz, General Counsel, CCO, Partner, Navy Capital; James Rieger, Partner, Chairman of Cannabis Law Practice Group, Tannenbaum Helpert LLP

The audience members will come away with significant learning and an enhanced perspective on industry trends, structures and transactions for raising and deploying capital. Specific transaction types will be explored and used as examples to foster an appreciation for the types of financings taking place in the industry and the particular challenges encountered by both the investor and the Cannabis business raising funds. Audience members will leave the presentation with a deep understanding of Cannabis financing trends, due diligence requirements and market terms.

What We Can Learn from Other States

10:00 a.m. – 10:50 a.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Calvin Frye, Owner, Compassionate Caregivers of Studio City (Clonville); Kathryn McCall, Partner, Sideman & Bancroft LLP; Roz McCarthy, Founder/CEO, Minorities for Medical Marijuana

As many states on the East Coast seek to legalize marijuana for medical or adult use, success in emerging markets takes a well-crafted combination of expertise, study and groundwork. Hear what we can learn from those with years of experience: the trials, tribulations and success stories as they discuss their journey and how state legislation and regulatory issues molded the industry.

Warrior Wellness: The Transition Epidemic Facing Veterans

1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Moderated by: Denise Bottiglieri, PhD, Former Chairwoman and CEO, Healthcare Consultancy Group, a Division of Omnicom Inc.

Panelists: Max Rose, United States Congressman (NY 11) & Retired Captain, U.S. Army; Mike Hoover, Strategic Advisor & Retired U.S. Army Command Sergeant Major; Dan Marshall, CEO and Founder, MFive Consulting & Retired, Master Chief Petty Officer, U.S. Navy SEAL; Jonathan Wilson, Retired U.S. Navy SEAL & Chief Executive Officer, SEAL Future Fund

Returning to civilian life presents unique opportunities and challenges for those who have served. Veterans have a much higher rate of certain debilitating medical conditions as compared to the rest of the population. From the battlefields to their pathways to civilian life and wellness through alternative therapies, this panel features candid talks from veterans who served in special operations with the U.S. Army and Navy. Come and be part of the discussion on how CBDs and alternative therapies have helped veterans, and gain an understanding of how we need to expand access and provide more research on CBD benefits.

Breaking Boundaries Without Permission: Women Making Business and Social Impact

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Moderated by: Gia Moron, Executive Vice President, Women Grow

Panelists: Cristina Buccola, Esq., Founder, Cristina Buccola Counsel PLLC; Jeannette Ward Horton, Vice President, Global Marketing & Communications, MJ Freeway; Dr. Chanda Macias, Owner and CEO, National Holistic Healing Center Medical Marijuana Dispensary; Tanya Osborne, NYC Market Leader, Women Grow

This panel will focus on women who are taking on business projects and/or social issues without limits. They are making serious inroads while challenging the marketplace and social views. Each woman will represent a various sector within the cannabis industry.

Key Trends Shaping the Global Cannabis Market

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Kacey Morrissey, Director of Industry Analytics, New Frontier Data

The Cannabis Industry continues to flourish and today over 50 countries worldwide have some form of legal cannabis. As new markets are continually added, technology, new consumer preferences, and medical advancements are shaping the way we think about and predict the future of this burgeoning industry. Explore the evolution of a global cannabis industry with special attention to critical issues influencing the East Coast and CBD markets.

Make Seed-to-Sale Work for You

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A15

Moderated by: Jacobi Holland, CEO and Co-Founder, Jade Insights

Panelists: Aly Piscatelli, Owner Operator, Boss Consulting; Pranav Sood, CEO, Trellis; Christopher Dell'Olio, CEO, WebJoint

In all legal markets, governing bodies implement some degree of regulatory tracking requirements commonly referred to as "Seed-to-Sale" or "Track-and-Trace." i.e. METRC, Biotrack, Leaf Data Systems. For anyone operating a license, it is essential to understand how these tools work and how it impacts your business. In many cases, this is purely a cost center and a compliance headache, but if done right, this can be a foundational resource for the businesses success. This panel will discuss ways to make your seed-to-sale tools work in your favor by using best practices and SOPs for efficiency and accuracy, utilizing data from these tools to optimize workflows and value-chain, and implementing other third-party software vendors for cultivation and dispensaries.

Hemp Cultivation Best Practices

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Ross Duffield, National Cultivation Manager, Canopy Growth

Hemp is a crop that is new to the US and fits well in most farming operations. The style of hemp being grown will determine the best practices recommended. This session will compare cultivation systems and provide guidance on the best practice recommended for a profitable harvest. A successful industrial hemp crop will set a farmer up for success and may inspire others to grow hemp!

Autism: Perspectives, Passion and Progress

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: Kevin Murray, Board Member, Autism Speaks

Hear from experts in the Autism community as they discuss how CBD and THC interacts with the body's receptors, CB1, CB2, GPR 55 and why it matters. Learn the latest progress about access to information and material before and after the Farm Bill and what may be the potential under the States Act from a research perspective. You'll hear from a patient/consumer perspective about access to wellness and pharma products for now and in the future. Other issues addressed will be the future of regulatory standards and how the supply chain (genetics, cultivators, processors et al) is organizing to meet demand in the U.S. and internationally.

Crop Insurance Program for Industrial Hemp

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Clifton Parks, President and CEO, AgriLogic Consulting, LLC

With the recent passage of the Agriculture Improvement Act of 2018, industrial hemp has a significant opportunity to reach its full commercial production potential and there is now an opportunity to develop a broad-based crop insurance program to protect producers. Pending the outcome of the report to Congress referenced in the legislation documenting the economic viability of the domestic production and sale of industrial hemp and hemp products, it is expected that the number of producers and subsequent acreage of industrial hemp will increase substantially. At such time, hemp producers will need a robust crop insurance program to protect them against losses from an array of natural perils. AgriLogic Consulting, in cooperation with the National Hemp Association, is developing a crop insurance program that will provide current and future industrial hemp producers with a much-needed risk management solution for an industry on the verge of significant expansion. This program would allow producers to insure industrial hemp against multiple natural perils of loss like other major industrial food, feed, and fiber crops. The purpose of this session is to give industrial hemp producers a voice in the overall design and details of the crop insurance program being developed.

How Blockchain is Transforming the Cannabis Industry from Seed-to-Sale

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A15

Moderated by: James Ugalde, Partner, Quarles & Brady

Panelists: Ken Ramirez, Co-Founder & CEO, Alt Thirty Six; Steven Segal, PhD, Founder, BioTrackTHC; Ryan Taylor, CEO, Dash Core Group; Jontae James, CEO, NatureTrak

Blockchain technologies and the cannabis industry are rapidly transforming. Everyday innovative technologies are designed and developed to address industry challenges. These two fields are fundamentally changing each other and becoming increasingly integrated. We discuss how blockchain technologies can be applied to the growing cannabis industry; specifically, within the cannabis industry's distribution and supply chain management. The discussion will provide a basic understanding of the technology, how it can be applied to existing strategic business models, and its practical application in growing global industries, such as the US cannabis industry.

The "Legalization" of Cannabis & Future Business Opportunities in New York and New Jersey

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Moderated by: Kelley Crosson, Vice President, New Jersey Cannabis Industry Association

Panelists: Axel Bernabe, Assistant Counsel to the Governor for Health, New York State Executive Chamber; Jeff Brown, Assistant Commissioner, Medical Marijuana, New Jersey Department of Health

Cannabis laws in New York and New Jersey are changing rapidly and will create a multitude of new business opportunities in the most ethnically and geographically diverse region in the nation. Our panel will provide insight into the state of medical cannabis, the emergence of adult-use cannabis businesses and how to begin the process of raising capital to help you reach your goals.

Hemp Processing: From Start to Finish

4:00 p.m. – 4:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Trey Riddle, CEO & Founder, Sunstrand Sustainable Materials

This presentation focuses on the hemp fiber supply chain, with some thought given to hemp hurd. Dr. Riddle begins with growing process in America, then moves to processing for specific applications, such as apparel, plastics, animal care, automotive, and more.

Cannabis and Hemp Academia Town Hall

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Moderated by: Diane Savino, New York State Senator

Panelists: Carlyn Buckler, PhD, Associate Professor of Practice, Cornell University; Nadir Pearson, Graduate Student, Brown University; and Founder/CEO, SMART (Student Marijuana Alliance for Research & Transparency); Ekaterina Sedia, PhD, Associate Professor of Biology, Stockton University; Peter Apicella, Graduate Student, University of Connecticut

This groundbreaking assembly of college professionals and students will highlight and discuss the wave of cannabis and hemp curricula taking hold in many U.S. universities. This town hall assembles educators, deans, students and parents to address the issues surrounding these courses and degrees. To be discussed: 1. Why should we have a cannabis and hemp curriculum and what is the impact on students and their college career? 2. Is it an economic opportunity for students to get educated on cannabis and hemp and the business, health, and legal opportunities, etc.? 3. Should offering a cannabis and hemp curriculum across colleges be just as mainstream as offering any other classes like Political Science, Psychology, Language, etc.?

Cannabis Industry Fundamentals: Market Size, Growth, Category, Product and Consumer Trends

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Roy Bingham, CEO, BDS Analytics

Attendees will learn about overall market context – market trends, size, growth by State and nationally and by channel – Adult use vs Medical. Then, they will learn which categories and sub-categories of cannabis products are largest and/or growing most rapidly and represent the best opportunities for both dispensaries and growers, producers and brands. This is based on more than 900 Million point-of-sale transactions that BDS Analytics has categorized and organized. Finally we will explore Consumer Insights and trends – demographics and psychographics of Cannabis Consumers, Acceptors and Rejecters and other perspectives for those developing products or operating dispensaries.

Hemp Today and Into the Future

12:00 p.m. – 12:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Presented by: Erica McBride Stark, Executive Director, National Hemp Association; Geoffrey Whaling, Co-Founder and President, Canopy HIP Developments LLC; Strategic Advisor, CBD and Hemp, Canopy Growth USA; Chairman, National Hemp Association; President, Pennsylvania Hemp Industry Council

Learn about the current landscape of hemp and what the future holds. Focusing on NY, they will walk you through the proposed permitting changes for CBD as it relates to the upcoming Cannabis Commission and Adult Use program. Also get the latest updates on the implementation of the USDA hemp program and the FDA's intentions for the regulation of CBD.

Dispensary Owner/Operator Panel: Trials, Tribulations and Triumphs

1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Moderated by: Kelley Crosson, Vice President, New Jersey Cannabis Industry Association

Panelists: Michelle Bodner, President & CEO, Curaleaf NY; Hillary Peckham, Chief Operations Officer, Etain; Jenny Einsig, Vice President of Retail Operations, Mission Medical Cannabis Dispensary

Learn from a panel of dispensary owner/operators. Real-life examples will lead this discussion, encompassing all aspects of owning and operating a cannabis dispensary, including but not limited to: obtaining a license, deciding on a location, navigating local zoning, staffing, community relations, inventory management, transitioning from medical to adult-use, and managing ongoing compliance issues in a rapidly changing legal environment. This is sure to be a deeply informative session for anyone who is interested to know more about owning and operating a cannabis dispensary. A must-attend session for any level of attendee!

Health, Wellness & Safety: What to Look for When Buying CBD

1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m. - Room: 1A13

Presented by: Dr. Stuart Titus, CEO, Medical Marijuana, Inc

Many people refer to the CBD retail market as the “Wild Wild West” and, because necessary national testing and dosing standards haven’t been established yet, it’s often difficult to know what to buy or how much to take. Dr. Stuart Titus will help you understand what to look for when purchasing CBD products in terms of testing benchmarks, certifications and efficacy norms.

Presented by: Sumit Mehta, CEO, MAZAKALI; Dr. Monica Vialpando, Founder, Vialpando, LLC; Kyle Lazernik, Vice President of Sales, Green Roads

What is CBD? Where did it come from? Why is it being hailed as a miracle drug? What is it used for? What are some common CBD myths and misconceptions? What's next for CBD? Hear a banker question a scientist on what CBD can do, why it is experiencing such popularity and what companies are doing to get in on the craze. CBD - Is it hype, or is it real, and what happens next?

How the Media and Public Relations Influences the Cannabis Industry

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A12

Presented by: Robert Vanisko, Director, Cannabis, North 6th Agency (N6A)

Panelists: Alyson Martin, Co-Founder and Editor, Cannabis Wire; Ronit Pinto, Owner, Honeysuckle Magazine

How are public relations firms and major media outlets driving perception and market trends within the cannabis industry? How has the role of mainstream media outlets in cannabis evolved and where can we expect it to go from here? This panel will explore the symbiotic relationship between the cannabis industry and the media, diving into how cannabis businesses attract media coverage, how companies approach strategic messaging, and how the media influences various aspects of the industry.

A New Approach to Startup Due Diligence in the Cannabis Industry

2:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m. - Room: 1A10

Moderated by: Rani Soto, President & Co-Founder, LeafLaunch

Panelists: Leo Bridgewater, National Director of Veterans Outreach, Minorities for Medical Marijuana and Co-Founder, Leaf Launch Holdings; Christine Ianuzzi, Managing Partner & Show Director, Cannabis World Congress & Business Exposition; Dr. Susan Amat, Chief Executive and Founder, Venture Hive

This panel discussion is focused on opportunities in the cannabis industry to re-imagine processes on startup due diligence from conceptualizing the "why" to executing on the "how". Panelists will cover topics related to technology, methodology, and mindsets that are critically necessary for the industry to promote value-oriented, transparent and data-driven enterprises capable of growth and scale with or without investment.

COMMERCIAL CANNABIS IS NO LONGER CONFINED BY STATE, NATIONAL OR INTERNATIONAL BORDERS.

NEITHER ARE WE.

Since 1978, Wilson Elser has provided accomplished legal counsel to local, regional, national and international clients. We have since deepened our support for international businesses with cross-border needs by becoming a founding member of Legalign Global.

Ours is the first true full-service, international Cannabis Law practice team. In addition to assisting noteworthy licensed cannabis businesses with legal and risk management services, Wilson Elser advises insurance carriers, financial institutions and professional services companies, including many of the most active in this industry, on best practices to operate in today's challenging, quickly evolving regulatory environment. We are intimately familiar with applicable federal and state statutes and regulations, and literally can place experienced "boots on the ground" by virtue of our 37 offices strategically located throughout the United States.

Wilson Elser is the first national resource for cannabis law.
